Teen Advisory Group

TAG MISSION STATEMENT

The Windsor Public Library Teen Advisory Group is committed to providing teens with materials, programs, and information they need to help them meet lifelong learning, cultural and recreational goals. The Teen Advisory Group encourages teen involvement in the library through creative original programming, volunteering, and promoting the library in the community.

What is TAG?

TAG is the Teen Advisory Group at WPL. As members of TAG, teens have a say on events, materials, and perhaps even library policies. Young Adults in TAG work with library staff to create exciting and interesting programs and activities for teens and help to bring other teens into the library. TAG is open to all teens ages 13 - 18 living in Windsor.

What Can I Do as a TAG Member? Plenty!

Suggest materials for purchase	Help plan and perform programs
Help work on a TAG web page	Create a teen library newsletter
Write book reviews	Help lead book, music, and or movie discussions
Create teen-oriented displays to promote reading	Help raise funds for materials and programs

Where and when do we meet?

Meetings are held at the library after school. There will be monthly meetings during the school year and additional meetings when preparing for big events and programs.

What do I have to do?

The TAG attends monthly meetings and works with other TAG members to help show what the library has to offer. You will be expected to have positive ideas, be able to listen and work with others, and be dedicated to improving young adult services at the library. The TAG receives assistance and guidance from a WPL staff member whose responsibilities include organizing meetings, keeping members aware of available resources and boundaries of the group, and providing the snacks.

How Can I Join?

Print and fill out the application, ask your parent or legal guardian to sign it, and return it to the downstairs reference desk in the library. Membership is open to any Windsor teen ages 13 - 18. If you have any questions, contact the YA Librarian at the library.
